

Legislative Staff Visit to UCSF November 16 and 17, 2006

Thursday, November 16—Parnassus Day UCSF Parnassus Campus

11:00 – 11:30

Introductions, Agenda Overview Nursing Building, Room N 217

Barb French, Associate Vice Chancellor, University Relations, UCSF

Welcome to UCSF!

Paul Takayama, Executive Director, Community & Government Relations, UCSF

Introductions, introduction to UCSF

Kieran John Flaherty, Director, UCSF State Governmental Relations

Kris Kuzmich, Legislative Director, Health & Clinical Affairs, UC State Governmental Relations

Agenda Overview

11:30 – 12:00

Tom Ryba, COO, UCSF Medical Center

Nursing Building, Room N 217

Welcome and overview of UCSF Medical Center – an academic medical center serving California and advancing health worldwide

12:00 – 1:15

Lunch and round-table discussions with medical residents including presentation featuring UCSF Children's Hospital

UCSF Kalmanovitz Library, Lange Room, Fifth Floor

Roxanne Fernandes, R.N., Executive Director UCSF Children's Hospital

UCSF Children's Hospital: Faculty, residents, and staff—how the hospital works

1:15 – 2:15

Sam Hawgood, M.D., Chief of Physician Services, UCSF Children's Hospital

Residents and Attending Physicians, UCSF Children's Hospital

UCSF Medical Center, 505 Parnassus Avenue

Tour of the UCSF Children's Hospital

Legislative Visit to UCSF

November 16 and 17, 2006

2:15 – 3:00

Diana Farmer, M.D., Chief of Pediatric Surgery, UCSF Children's Hospital

UCSF Fetal Treatment Center, 400 Parnassus Avenue, First Floor

Tour UCSF Fetal Treatment Center—From fetal experimental research and clinical research to treatments for patients.

View FIGS (Fetal Image Guided Surgery) demonstration or similar

View Fetendo (Fetoscopic intervention) demonstration or similar

3:00 – 4:00

Keith Yamamoto, PhD., Executive Vice Dean

UCSF School of Medicine & Professor, Cellular & Molecular Pharmacology

UCSF Kalmanovitz Library, Lange Room, Fifth Floor

Overview of UCSF stem cell research

Stem cell research and cures—what is needed to make it happen?

Susan Fisher, PhD., Faculty Director, Biomolecular Resource Center

Faculty, UCSF Program in Craniofacial and Mesenchymal Biology

Stem cell research and implications for pregnancy

Renee Reijo Pera, PhD., Co-Director, Program in Human

Stem Cell Biology and Associate Director

Center for Reproductive Sciences

Stem cell research and implications for infertility and birth defects

4:00 – 5:00

Group divides to tour Reijo Pera and Fisher Laboratories

Medical Sciences Building, 513 Parnassus

View the genetics of the human embryo and stem cells

5:00pm

Depart for SF Marriott Courtyard

7:00pm

Meet bus at Hotel entrance; depart for hosted dinner at local restaurant

Legislative Visit to UCSF

November 16 and 17, 2006

Friday, November 17 – Mission Bay Day UCSF Mission Bay Campus

8:30 – 9:15

Depart hotel arrive at Mission Bay
Byers Hall (QB3), 1700 Fourth Street

9:15 – 9:30

Kieran John Flaherty, Director, UCSF State Governmental Relations
Kris Kuzmich, Legislative Director Health & Clinical Affairs, UC State Governmental Relations
Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215
Agenda Overview

9:30 – 10:30

Erin Escobar, Campus Tour guide
Mission Bay campus

10:30 – 12:00

Mark Laret, CEO, UCSF Medical Center
Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215
UCSF's academic medical center—the vision for Mission Bay

Kevin Beauchamp, Director of Physical Planning, UCSF Campus Planning

Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215
UCSF Medical Center at Mission Bay—an overview of the physical development

View future location of UCSF Medical Center at Mission Bay

Break

UCSF Genentech Hall, Café Balcony

Bruce Komiske, Executive Director, Clinical Facilities Development, UCSF

Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215
UCSF Medical Center at Mission Bay—next steps to get it done

12:00 – 1:00

Lunch

Regis Kelly, QB3 Director

Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215
QB3's Vision – Discovery to Health

Legislative Visit to UCSF

November 16 and 17, 2006

1:00 – 1:30

Sarah Nelson, PhD., Director, UCSF Program in Bioengineering
Surbeck Distinguished Professor of Advanced Imaging

Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215

Public-private partnerships: bringing research to patients

1:30 – 3:30

Tour of QB3 (split delegation into two groups)

Byers Hall (QB3)

1. Surbeck Laboratory for Advanced Imaging, Sarah Nelson; a demonstration of QB3's high-field human magnetic research program
2. QB3 Bio-Nano Fabrication Facility, Tejal Desai; core facility for designing and fabricating micro- and nano-scale devices for drug delivery, diagnostics, and tissue engineering
3. QB3-Incubating the next generation of great companies, Douglas Crawford; capturing innovation by helping young companies in QB3 incubator
4. Computational Drug Discovery & Small Molecule Discovery Center, Brian Shoichet and Adam Renslo; QB3's innovative drug discovery center

3:30 – 3:45

Wrap

Byers Hall (QB3), Room 215

Review of take-away materials

Questions

Depart for Sacramento